

PRESS RELEASE

---

Aqualand Ale House Sold to New Owners

Boulder Junction, Wisconsin, August 18, 2021

After nearly 10 years of ownership, Sue and Dick Govier have sold the Aqualand Ale House in Boulder Junction. Joel and Anne Miner, along with their son and daughter-in-law Taylor and Breanna Miner, purchased the property and business August 18, 2021. The Miner Family hopes to continue to offer the great atmosphere and experience the Northwoods have come to expect since the Govier's created the Aqualand Ale House in 2012.

This transaction was facilitated by John Foster of Creative Business Services/CBS Global in Green Bay, Wisconsin. Since 1979, Creative Business Services/CBS-Global has specialized in the sale of businesses and commercial & industrial real estate throughout Wisconsin and the Midwest.

Additional information on the company's achievements, services provided, leadership or history can be found on the website: <http://www.cbs-global.com>.

Contact:
Mary Vanden Avond
Creative Business Services / CBS-Global
920-432-1166
corporate@cbs-global.com

###

Richard & Susan Govier; Sellers
John Foster; Creative Business Service/CBS-Global